

The Mori Contemporary Art Foundation

Privacy Policy

The Mori Contemporary Art Foundation (hereinafter “the Foundation”) complies with the Act on the Protection of Personal Information of Japan and appropriately manages users’ personal information.

Article 1 (Information Collected)

The Foundation may collect the following information through the Site:

- Name, email address, telephone number (when submitting inquiries via the contact form)
- Access logs, IP addresses, Cookie information (when browsing the Site)

Article 2 (Purpose of Use)

The collected information will be used for the following purposes:

1. Responding to inquiries
2. Operation and improvement of the Site
3. Analyzing usage status (such as access analysis)
4. Compliance with laws and regulations

Article 3 (Provision to Third Parties)

The Foundation will not provide personal information to third parties without prior consent of the user, except as required by law. If personal data is outsourced to service providers, confidentiality agreements will be concluded and appropriate management will be ensured.

Article 4 (Security Measures)

The Foundation takes necessary and appropriate measures to protect users’ personal information from leakage, loss, alteration, and unauthorized access.

Article 5 (Disclosure, Correction, and Deletion)

Users may request disclosure, correction, or deletion of their personal information held by the Foundation. Please contact the following inquiry desk for procedures.

Article 6 (Use of Cookies)

The Site may use Cookies to analyze usage and improve convenience. Users may disable Cookies through browser settings, but some functions of the Site may become unavailable.

Article 7 (Revisions)

This Policy may be revised as necessary. The revised version shall become effective upon being posted on the Site.

Article 8 (Contact Information)

Mori Contemporary Art Foundation
Address: 49F Roppongi Hills Mori Tower, 6-10-11
Roppongi, Minato-ku, Tokyo 461-8525
Representative: Mori Yoshiko
Email: info@moricafe.jp
Tel: +81-6406-6765

Effective as of 10/29/2025